

SESSION:

Security and Emergency Planning: Your Responsibilities as the Event Professional

Speaker Profile:

Joey Leon | Moody Center

Joey Leon is an accomplished security professional with a robust background in safeguarding premier sports and entertainment venues. Currently serving as Director of Security for Oak View Group's Moody Center in Austin Texas, Joey manages all security operations with precision, ensuring the safety of guests, staff, and VIPs. With a proactive approach, Joey has orchestrated enhanced security measures for high-profile events, including NHL Stanley Cup Finals, NCAA Final Four and numerous concerts, demonstrating adept collaboration with law enforcement agencies. Throughout his tenure, Joey has spearheaded comprehensive security programs, implemented cutting-edge technologies, and fostered strong partnerships with local, state, and federal authorities, ensuring a safe and exciting event day experience for fans of all kinds.

About the Session:

In "Security and Emergency Planning: Your Responsibilities as the Event Professional," we will cover crucial aspects of event security and emergency preparedness. Highlighting the diverse team involved, staffing considerations, VIP security, credentialing, and emergency procedures. With insights on emergency team roles, event stoppage protocols, and communication strategies. At the end of this session Event Planners will be empowered to navigate event day operations seamlessly, ensuring the safety of all stakeholders.